RENEE KOOG

Renee Koog is a 10 year veteran of law enforcement and began her career with the Phoenix Police Department in Phoenix, Arizona in April 2002. During her career there, she was assigned to Patrol Operations in the Cactus Park and Desert Horizon Precincts. While on patrol, she assisted the Vice Units with prostitution stings and the Neighborhood Enforcement Teams (NET) with Community Policing concepts-CPTED and Crime Free Multi-Housing. She was a certified AZPOST Instructor, certified Detective, and instructed the Charlie Check First Child Safety Program.

Sergeant Koog began working for the Georgetown Police Department, in Georgetown, Texas in March 2007. She is currently assigned to the Professional Standards Division and Training Unit. She holds multiple certifications to include: Master Peace Officer, TCLEOSE Instructor, NASRO Advance School Resource Officer, and Attorney General's Gang Investigator. Sergeant Koog was recognized as an Honor Graduate at the Alive at 25 Instructor Program, graduated with honors from the Austin Police Department's Intermediate Leadership Academy, and was named Officer of the Year in 2010.

Sergeant Koog instructs on numerous topics to include: Gang Investigation, Alive at 25, School Safety, Traffic Safety, Career's in Law Enforcement, Nationwide Train the Trainer Alive at 25, and was requested to instruct at the APD Leadership Academy.

GLENN LEWIS

Glenn Lewis is currently a partner in the law firm of Linebarger Goggan Blair & Sampson, LLP. Prior to joining the firm, he practiced law with his brother, Judge Terry Lewis, in the Fort Worth firm of Lewis and Lewis. In addition to his duties at Linebarger Goggan Blair & Sampson, he serves as the Presiding Municipal Judge in the Tarrant County City of Forest Hill, Texas.

Judge Lewis concluded 10 years of Service in the Texas House of Representatives when the 79th Session of the Texas Legislature commenced on January 11, 2005.

After graduating from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School in Fort Worth, he enrolled at Prairie View A&M University. Prior to graduation, he returned home to Fort Worth where he completed his undergraduate work. He earned an A.A. degree from Tarrant County College and a B.A. from Texas Wesleyan University. He went on to earn a Doctor of Jurisprudence degree from The University of Texas School of Law in Austin, Texas.

Judge Lewis was recently appointed to the Texas State Advisory Committee to the United States Commission on Civil Rights. In 2010, he was chosen by the Fort Worth Business Press as one of 12 "Power Attorneys" in Tarrant County. He is also Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors of United Way of Tarrant County.

STELLA MATA

Stella Mata came to the court with a strong background in financial banking. She began her career as a Municipal Court Clerk in 2009 with the City of Mansfield and currently holds the position of Juvenile Case Manager with the City of Forest Hill, where she has developed the program and a strong rapport with the educational community providing a variety of on campus classes. She is has obtained her Level I certification in November of 2011, and is currently working on her Level II.

VICTORIA JARAMILLO MEDLEY

Victoria Jaramillo Medley is currently the Court Administrator for the City of Amarillo. Ms. Medley received her Bachelor of Science degree from Northern Arizona University and has been in her current position as the Court Administrator since 2002.

Prior to becoming the Court Administrator for the City of Amarillo, Ms. Medley worked for Bernalillo County Juvenile Probation in Albuquerque, New Mexico and Randall County Juvenile Probation in Amarillo, Texas. She was an officer specializing in serious offenders. Ms. Medley was originally hired by the City of Amarillo in 1990 to serve as the first Teen Court Coordinator for the City of Amarillo and was responsible for designing and implementing one of the first Teen Court Programs in Texas.

Ms. Medley has completed Level II of the Clerk Certification program and is a Certified Court Manager through the Institute of Court Management. Ms. Medley is also a certified Challenge Course Facilitator having worked with several corporate as well as community groups in the Amarillo area.

SHELAI MULLINS

Shelai Mullins grew up in Sacramento, California. She started college in Sacramento after high school and then went to BYU to finish her degree in Elementary Education. She moved to Texas in late 2000 with the intent of teaching, but applied for a court clerk position in 2002. She absolutely loved the work, and especially loved working the juvenile dockets. In 2003 she left the court to pursue other interests, traveling to New York and other states. In 2007 the JCM position became available, and she immediately applied, feeling that it combined her interests of teaching and law perfectly. Luckily, she was hired as McKinney's first Juvenile Case Manager.

Since 2007, Ms. Mullins has been able to assist with the formation of the Juvenile Case Manager Association of Texas and it's first ever conference. She was excited to write a piece of legislation in 2011 (SB 209) with her prosecutor and testify in front of the corrections committee. She has started a court community service program and is currently working with McKinney's community development group to fund a juvenile program that would combine resources of many community organizations to assist at-risk youth and their families.

She is also currently training McKinney clerks, SRO's, and juvenile probation officers to understand the role of juvenile case managers and juvenile statutes. The most important thing to know about Ms. Mullins is that she loves her job, but mostly loves being a mommy to two beautiful little girls.

ROBIN RAMSAY

Robin Ramsay is currently a licensed attorney and the Presiding Municipal Judge for the City of Denton. Judge Ramsay received his undergraduate degree from Southern Methodist University in Dallas and his law degree from Texas Tech University in Lubbock.

Prior to becoming a judge, Judge Ramsay served as Students' Attorney for the University of North Texas and as an Adjunct Professor of Business Law. After leaving the University of North Texas and prior to his current appointment, Judge Ramsay practiced law with the Hammerle Law Firm with offices in Lewisville and Denton.

Judge Ramsay has received his accreditation for the American Academy of Attorney Mediators and currently acts as a Mediator for both pre-litigation and litigated matters by assignment of court and at the request of the parties or their attorneys. Judge Ramsay also serves as alternate Mental Health Magistrate for Denton County at the assignment of the Denton County Probate Court.

Judge Ramsay is a past-president of the Texas Municipal Courts Association and currently serves as the 2nd Vice President.

KATIE TEFFT

Katie Tefft is the Program Director for the TMCEC. Prior to joining the Center, she worked as Project Attorney on the 7th edition of Dawson's Texas Juvenile Law under contract with the former Texas Juvenile Probation Commission (TJPC) and as a Drafting Attorney in the Attorney General's Open Records Division. Ms. Tefft received her Bachelor's degree with honors in Sociology and Economics from Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas, and her Juris Doctorate with honors in May of 2007 from Mercer University School of Law in Macon, Georgia. She also received a certificate in Legal Writing and Research from Mercer. While in law school, Ms. Tefft clerked in the Narcotics Division of the Bibb County District Attorney's Office.

RYAN TURNER

Ryan Turner is General Counsel and Director of Education for the TMCEC. Prior to joining the Center, he served as Briefing Attorney for Judge Sharon Keller at the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. Mr. Turner obtained his juris doctorate from Southern Methodist University School of Law. He received his Bachelor's Degree in Psychology with highest honors from St. Edward's University, Austin, Texas, where he now teaches as an adjunct faculty member in the School of Behavioral and Social Sciences. In 2004 he received the School's Adjunct Teaching Excellence Award.

Mr. Turner is currently Deputy City Attorney for the City of Dripping Springs and previously served as a Special Assistant County Attorney for Kendall County.

A native Texan, Mr. Turner was raised in the north Texas town of Vernon. He is the co-author of the books Lone Star Justice: A Comprehensive Overview of the Texas Criminal Justice System and The Municipal Judges Book.

He is currently an advisory committee member on the Texas Judicial Council's Juvenile Justice Committee which is charged with assessing the impact of school discipline and school-based policing on referrals to the municipal, justice, and juvenile courts and identifying judicial policies or initiatives that work to reduce referrals without having a negative impact on school safety; limit recidivism; and preserve judicial resources.

CONSTANCE WHITE

Constance White is the Director of Court Services at the City of Burleson. Previously she was a Court Administrator in McKinney, Court Supervisor in Plano, Case Manager at CASA of Collin County, and Legal Secretary at the Collin County District Attorney Office. Ms. White is a member of the Texas Court Clerks Association; North Texas Chapter.
