

ROSIE CABALLERO

Rosie Caballero is the Municipal Court Clerk/Administrator for the City of Keller, where she has served for over five years. Prior to her appointment in Keller, Rosie was employed by the City of Watauga.

Ms. Caballero is currently pursuing a degree in Criminal Justice from Tarrant County Junior College. She presently serves as a Board Member for the Texas Court Clerks Association and is an active member of the North Texas Chapter. She was recognized for her professionalism in 1992 by the North Texas Chapter when she received an award of honor and recognition for outstanding contribution to municipal and justice courts. She is also an active member of the National Association for Court Managers and the Texas Notary Public Association.

Ms. Caballero resides in Fort Worth with her husband Jesse and their two daughters, Amanda Marie and Ashley Lynn.

KELLY CROW

Kelly Crow is the Presiding Judge for the City of Fulshear and the Deputy City Attorney (Prosecutor) for the City of Sugarland. Ms. Crow has been with the City of Sugarland since 2005 and has held her current position since 2007.

Judge Crow received her Bachelor's in Political Science from Texas A&M in 1994 and her Juris Doctorate from South Texas College of Law in 1997. Judge Crow is a part of the Fort Bend County Bar Association, Texas Municipal Court Association and Board of Directors – Literacy Council of Fort Bend County.

She has two boys ages 11 and eight years old, Cullen and Garrett. Her house is like a WWF wrestling match.

MICHAEL DREWRY

Michael Drewry currently presides as the Presiding Judge for the City of Frisco. Previously he served as the Assistant Municipal Judge for the City of Carrollton from 1996 to 2007. From 1997 to 2009, Judge Drewry was the Assistant Municipal Judge at the City of Farmers Branch. He worked in private practice from 1981 to 1996. Judge Drewry obtained his Bachelor's in Business Administration from the Southern Methodist University in 1978 and his Juris Doctorate from the St. Mary's University in 1981. He is the former president of the Dallas Municipal/Justice Bar Association.

FREDERICK P. GARCIA JR.

Frederick P. Garcia Jr. is currently the municipal court clerk for San Antonio. Mr. Garcia graduated from St. Mary's University with a degree in business administration and later Texas Tech University with his juris doctorate.

Mr. Garcia has previously worked as a municipal court prosecutor, and bank auditor, as he has also served as an attorney in a private practice that concentrated on criminal defense and family law.

DAVID HAMILTON

Mr. Hamilton has been licensed to practice law in Texas for over thirty years, spending the majority of that time as an attorney in private practice. In the last ten years, one of his clients has been the City of Reno, Lamar County. Hamilton worked as a law enforcement officer during undergraduate school at Texas Tech University and later during law school at Texas Tech. He holds the Advanced Law Enforcement License, as well as the Instructor's Certification from the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Standards and Education. He is a member of the National Order of Barristers and Hamilton has participated in every type of criminal case, from traffic tickets to capital murder. Following law school, Hamilton served as a briefing attorney for the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin, then began his legal career which has included five years as a felony prosecutor.

Born in Lubbock, Hamilton's published articles including "Multiple Personality Disorder: Competency and the Insanity Defense" and "Expert Witness Testimony."

GILBERT HERNANDEZ

Gilbert Hernandez has been with the City of Fort Worth for 14 years. He has been the Deputy Clerk for the past three years. Prior to working with the City of Fort Worth, Mr. Hernandez was a training manager for Payless Shoes.

Mr. Hernandez received his Bachelor's in Business Administration from the University of Phoenix in 2006 and his Masters in Management from Texas Wesleyan University. He is a member of the Hispanic Leadership Organization in Fort Worth and is a Licensed Court Interpreter in English/Spanish.

LANDRA HUDSON

Landra Hudson has been formally recognized in her community for establishing a good working relationship with county law enforcement officials, developing formal magistrate procedures for City cases and implementing new policies and procedures within the Seguin Municipal Court. Landra is a Level II Municipal Court Clerk and Vice-President of the Freedom Trail Chapter of the Texas Court Clerks Association.

Landra has been employed with the City of Seguin since September 2008 and currently holds the position of Municipal Court Administrator.

LEAH HUFF

Leah Huff has 14 years of municipal law and legal administration experience, in addition to the years of office administration and accounting in the corporate world beginning in 1984. Her legal experience began with one of the top municipal law firms in the State of Texas: Taylor, Olson, Adkins, Sralla & Elam, L.L.P. (Fort Worth law firm specializing in Municipal, Corporate and Appellate law) where she treasured her tenor as a Legal Assistant and Law Office Administrator beginning in November 1995. With great joy she accepted the position of Municipal Court Supervisor for the City of Southlake, Texas in December 2006.

She strives to become a Court Administrator of quality and her accomplishments to date in the field of Municipal Court include the following: Southlake Leadership Academy

SANDRA MA

Sandra Ma has been a Municipal Court Clerk for the City of Dalworthington Gardens since December of 2002. She grew up in Arlington, Texas and attended the University of Texas at Arlington where she received a Bachelor of Art in Criminology and Criminal Justice in December 2002. She went on and attended the Police Academy at Tarrant County College where she graduated in May 2003. In February 2005 she was sworn in as a Public Safety Officer for the City of Dalworthington Gardens, Texas.

Sandra has been a member of the Texas Court Clerk's Association since 2004. She achieved a Level 1 certification in 2004 and her Level II certification in 2005. In February 2010 the Institute for Court Management recognized Sandra as a Certified Court Manager.

SANDRA L. MABBETT

Sandra Mabbett is the Judicial Information Analyst for the Office of Court Administration's Research and Court Services Division. Judicial Information staff are responsible for collecting, analyzing, and publishing court activity statistics and other judicial data. She has served in this position since 2004.

Prior to her employment with OCA, she was employed by the federal government for 25 years.

Ms. Mabbett is a native of upstate New York who moved to Austin in 1978.

DONALD McKINLEY

Don McKinley is an Assistant Collection Specialist in the Research and Court Services Division in the Office of Court Administration. Prior to his OCA position, Don supervised court collections and front cashier staff for the City of Austin Municipal Court. Don also worked as a supervisor for the City of Fort Worth Municipal Court in Court Operations. He has an undergraduate degree in Finance and Economics. He is a Board Member of GCAT (Governmental Collectors Association of Texas), and a founding member of the Saginaw Valley State University Economic Society. A native of Saginaw, Michigan, Mr. McKinley enjoys collections, court management, and the Detroit Red Wings.

STEWART W. MILNER

Stewart Milner is a graduate of the University of Texas at Arlington and the Oklahoma City University School of Law. He began his employment with the City of Arlington in 1992 as an Assistant City Attorney and became Chief Prosecutor for the City of Arlington in 1994. From 1997 to the present, he has served as the Chief Judge for the City of Arlington Municipal Court.

Judge Milner has taught classes for the North Texas Council of Governments, City of Arlington Police Academy, Texas Court Clerks Association, the Building Professional Institute, The National Judicial College and the Texas Municipal Courts Education Center.

He is a current board member and past president of the Texas Municipal Courts Association.

MELISSA PACE

Melissa Pace has spent the last ten years as the Court Administrator for the City of Haltom City. Ms. Pace was the Valedictorian at Floydada High School. She graduated Magna Cum Laude, from the University of Texas in Arlington with her Bachelors in Business Administration. She is a member of the North Texas Court Clerks Association. Ms. Pace is currently serving on the Education Committee as well as teaching for the North Texas Court Clerks Association. Ms. Pace served on the Audit Committee for the Texas Court Clerks Association this year. She is Level II certified, and working towards her Level III certification. Ms. Pace was born and raised in the Texas panhandle.

ROBIN A. RAMSAY

Robin Ramsay is currently a licensed attorney and the Presiding Municipal Judge for the City of Denton. Judge Ramsay received his undergraduate degree from Southern Methodist University in Dallas and his law degree from Texas Tech University in Lubbock.

Prior to becoming a judge, Judge Ramsay served as Students' Attorney for the University of North Texas and as an Adjunct Professor of Business Law. After leaving the University of North Texas and prior to his current appointment, Judge Ramsay practiced law with the Hammerle Law Firm with offices in Lewisville and Denton.

Judge Ramsay has received his accreditation for the American Academy of Attorney Mediators and currently acts as a Mediator for both pre-litigation and litigated matters by assignment of court and at the request of the parties or their attorneys. Judge Ramsay also serves as alternate Mental Health Magistrate for Denton County at the assignment of the Denton County Probate Court.

Judge Ramsay is a past-president of the Texas Municipal Courts Association and currently serves as the 2nd Vice President.

CATHY RIEDEL

Cathy Riedel is the Program Director for the Clerks' Program at TMCEC. She graduated from Texas A&M University with a degree in Political Science and obtained her law degree from St. Mary's University. After graduating from law school, she worked for the Court of Criminal Appeals as a briefing attorney and research assistant. Her legal practice has focused primarily on municipal law issues for the last 20 years. She has worked as City Attorney or assistant city attorney for the cities of Topeka, Georgetown, and Round Rock and served as municipal judge for the city of Liberty Hill for several years. Ms. Riedel taught trial advocacy and supervised third year law students in the Legal Clinic at Washburn University Law School. When she is not sitting in traffic on MoPac, she enjoys gardening and spoiling her two mustangs, four children, dogs, cats and husband.

MIKE SANCHEZ

Officer Mike Sanchez is currently employed with the City of Vidor Police Department. He is the Warrant / Bailiff for the Vidor Municipal Court for the past five years. He has more than 16 years of experience as a Texas Peace officer.

He has held the ranks of Corporal and Sergeant and has held the positions of Patrol Officer, Crime Prevention Officer and Inspector, Hostage Negotiator, Public Information Officer, Vidor Police Explorer Advisor, Vidor High School Criminal Justice Skills Advisor, Field Training Officer, Interstate Criminal Enforcement and Narcotics Investigator, and past member of the Orange County Area Law Enforcement SWAT team.

In addition to being the Warrant Officer, Officer Sanchez is assigned to Street Crimes with the Vidor Police Department. Officer Sanchez and Partner are mainly assigned to Criminal Enforcement on Interstate 10. However, they also pursue street level drug dealers in the City of Vidor.

In addition, his most cherished honor is the achievement of EAGLE Scout with the Boy Scouts of America.

KATIE TEFFT

Katie Tefft is the Program Attorney for the Texas Municipal Courts Education Center. Prior to joining the Center, she worked as Project Attorney on the 7th edition of Dawson's Texas Juvenile Law under contract with the former Texas Juvenile Probation Commission (TJPC) and as a Drafting Attorney in the Attorney General's Open Records Division. Mrs. Tefft received her bachelor's degree with honors in Sociology and Economics from Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas, and her juris doctorate with honors in May of 2007 from Mercer University School of Law in Macon, Georgia. She also received a certificate in Legal Writing and Research from Mercer. While in law school, Mrs. Tefft clerked in the Narcotics Division of the Bibb County District Attorney's Office.