CHAPTER 17 ANIMALS

One area of municipal court civil jurisdiction is over cases involving animals under the Health and Safety Code. State law provides procedures for the seizure, hearing, and disposition of dogs that are a danger to persons and animals that are cruelly treated; however, there are many lingering questions and uncertainties when it comes to handling these civil cases.

Many municipalities have enacted ordinances regulating these animal cases. Such local ordinances are contemplated in Sections 822.007 and 822.047 of the Health and Safety Code.

These checklists only discuss the procedures under state law contained in Chapters 821 and 822 of the Health and Safety Code.

1. Definitions

Checklist 17-1	Script/Notes
“Animal control authority” is a municipal or county animal control office with authority over the area in which the dog is kept or the county sheriff in an area that does not have an animal control office.	Secs. 822.001(1) and 822.041(1), H.S.C.
“Serious bodily injury” is an injury characterized by severe bite wounds or severe ripping and tearing of muscle that would cause a reasonably prudent person to seek treatment from a medical professional and would require hospitalization without regard to whether the person actually sought medical treatment.	Sec. 822.001(2), H.S.C.
“Dangerous dog” is a dog that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> a. Makes an unprovoked attack on a person that causes bodily injury and occurs in a place other than an enclosure in which the dog was being kept and that was reasonably certain to prevent the dog from leaving the enclosure on its own; or</li> </ul>	Sec. 822.041(2)(A), H.S.C.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> b. Commits unprovoked acts in a place other than an enclosure in which the dog was being kept and that was reasonably certain to prevent the dog from leaving the enclosure on its own and those acts cause a person to reasonably believe that the dog will attack and cause bodily injury to that person.</li> </ul>	Sec. 822.041(2)(B), H.S.C.
“Secure” means to take steps that a reasonable person would take to ensure a dog remains on the owner’s property, including confining the dog in an enclosure that is capable of preventing the escape or release of the dog.	Sec. 822.001(4), H.S.C.

“Secure enclosure” means a fenced area or structure that is locked; capable of preventing the entry of the general public, including children; capable of preventing the escape or release of a dog; clearly marked as containing a dangerous dog; and in conformance with the requirements for enclosures established by the local animal control authority.

Sec. 822.041(4), H.S.C.

“Owner” is a person who owns or has custody or control of the dog.

Sec. 822.041(5), H.S.C.

CHAPTER 17 ANIMALS

A county, justice, or municipal court has original jurisdiction to hear cases involving a dog attack, bite, or mauling that causes serious bodily injury or death to a person. These hearings are governed by Subchapter A, Chapter 822, Health and Safety Code.

Preponderance of the evidence is “superior evidentiary weight that, though not sufficient to free the mind wholly from all reasonable doubt, is still sufficient to incline a fair and impartial mind to one side of the issue rather than the other.” Black’s Law Dictionary.

- h. If the court determines at the hearing that the dog caused the death of a person, the court must order the dog be destroyed.

The dog must be destroyed by a licensed veterinarian, trained animal shelter or humane society personnel, or trained animal control authority personnel.

- i. If the court determines the dog caused serious bodily injury to the person, the court may order the dog be destroyed, unless:

- (1) The dog was being used to protect persons or property, the attack occurred in a properly marked enclosure designed to prevent the dog’s escape, and the injured person was at least eight years old and was trespassing;

- (2) The dog was not being used to protect persons or property, the attack occurred in an enclosure designed to prevent the dog’s escape, and the injured person was at least eight years old and was trespassing;

- (3) The dog was being used for law enforcement purposes and the attack occurred during an arrest or other law enforcement action;

- (4) The attack occurred while the dog was defending a person from an assault or

It is statutorily unclear whether a “reasonable doubt” or a “preponderance of the evidence” standard should be used in this determination. However, in Timmons v. Pecorino, 977 S.W.2d 603, (Tex. Crim. App. 1998), the Court of Criminal Appeals implicitly acknowledged the civil nature of these cases but refused to answer the question for lack of jurisdiction.

defending property from damage or theft by the injured person; or

- (5) The injured person was under eight years of age and the attack occurred in a secure enclosure designed to prevent a person under eight years of age from entering.
- 2. There is no right to appeal a court's determination provided in the subchapter.
- 3. An owner may face criminal liability if the owner fails, with criminal negligence, to secure the dog, and the dog's unprovoked attack causes serious bodily injury to (3rd degree felony) or the death of (2nd degree felony) a person.

Sec. 822.005, H.S.C.

CHAPTER 17 ANIMALS

Subchapter A, Chapter 822, H.S.C., provides procedures for what to do if a dog attacks and causes death or serious bodily injury. What if the dog causes injury that does not rise to the level of serious bodily injury? The court cannot order a dog be destroyed if it causes just bodily injury to a person unless the dog has been determined to be a “dangerous dog,” as defined in Section 822.041(2) of the Health and Safety Code.

There are three distinct types of hearings dealing with dangerous dogs that can originate in a county, justice, or municipal court. These proceedings are all governed by Subchapter D, Chapter 822, of the Health and Safety Code. A county or municipality may place additional requirements or restrictions on dangerous dogs if the requirements or restrictions are not breed specific and are more stringent than restrictions provided under Chapter 822 of the Health and Safety Code. Sec. 822.047, H.S.C. It is a Class C misdemeanor for a person who owns or has custody or control of a dangerous dog to fail to comply with an applicable municipal ordinance relating to dangerous dogs, and a subsequent offense is a Class B misdemeanor. Sec. 822.045, H.S.C.

Note that none of these procedures apply when a dog attacks another animal. There is no municipal court involvement when a dog attacks an animal.

3. Dangerous Dogs

- d. If the owner fails to deliver the dog, the court must issue a warrant authorizing the animal control authority to seize the dog and impound it in secure and humane conditions until the court orders the disposition of the dog. The owner shall pay any cost incurred in seizing the dog.

Sec. 822.0422(c), H.S.C.
See TMCEC Forms Book:
Seizure Warrant for Dangerous Dog.
An owner who fails to deliver the dog as required may be charged with a Class C misdemeanor (Class B for subsequent offenses). Sec. 822.045, H.S.C.
- e. The court must set a time for a hearing to determine whether the dog caused the death of or serious bodily injury to a person by attacking, biting, or mauling the person. The court must give written notice of the time and place of the hearing to the owner of the dog or the person from whom the dog was seized and the person who made the complaint.

Sec. 822.0423(a)-(b), H.S.C.
See TMCEC Forms Book:
Notice of Dangerous Dog Hearing.
- f. The hearing must be set within 10 days of the date the dog is delivered or seized.
- g. Any interested person, including the county or city attorney, may present evidence at the hearing.

Sec. 822.0423(a), H.S.C.
- h. A “preponderance of evidence” standard may be used to make the required findings.

Sec. 822.0423(c), H.S.C.

Preponderance of the evidence is “superior evidentiary weight that, though not sufficient to free the mind wholly from all reasonable doubt, is still sufficient to incline a fair and impartial mind to one side of the issue rather than the other.” Black’s Law Dictionary.
- i. At the hearing, the court must determine if the dog is a dangerous dog, according to the definitions in Section 822.041(2), H.S.C.
- j. If the court determines the dog is a dangerous dog, the court may order the dog continue to be impounded until the court determines if the owner(s) comply with the requirements in Step 3.

See TMCEC Forms Book:
Dangerous Dog Judgment.

Presumably, if the court declines to find that the dog is a dangerous dog, the court should order the dog be released to the owner of person from whom the dog was seized.
- k. The owner or person who filed the complaint may appeal the municipal court’s decision in the manner provided for the appeal of cases from the municipal court.

Sec. 822.0423(d)

Sec. 822.042(g), H.S.C.

- 3. Requirements for Owner of Dangerous Dog

  - a. The owner learns the dog is a dangerous dog if the owner knows of an attack, receives notice that a court has found the dog to be dangerous, or the owner is informed by the animal control authority that the dog is dangerous.
  - b. Not later than 30 days after learning that the person is the owner of a dangerous dog, the owner must:

    - (1) Register the dog with the animal control authority; Sec. 822.042(a)(1), H.S.C.
    - (2) Restrain the dog at all times in a secure enclosure or on a leash in the immediate control of the owner; Sec. 822.042(a)(2), H.S.C.
    - (3) Obtain $100,000 of liability insurance or financial responsibility and provide proof of the insurance to the animal control authority; and Sec. 822.042(a)(3), H.S.C.
    - (4) Comply with any applicable municipal ordinances or county regulations. Sec. 822.042(a)(4), H.S.C.
  - c. If the owner does not comply with the requirements, he or she must deliver the dog to the animal control authority not later than 30 days after learning the dog is a dangerous dog. Sec. 822.042(b), H.S.C.
  - d. The animal control authority must register all dangerous dogs located within its jurisdiction if the owner pays an annual $50 fee and presents proof of:

    - (1) Current liability insurance or financial responsibility; Sec. 822.043(a)(1)(A), H.S.C.
    - (2) Current rabies vaccination; and Sec. 822.043(a)(1)(B), H.S.C.
    - (3) The secure enclosure for the dog. Sec. 822.043(a)(1)(C), H.S.C.
  - e. The animal control authority must issue to the owner a registration tag for the dangerous dog, which must be put on the dog's collar. Sec. 822.043(b)(1), H.S.C.
  - f. If the owner sells or moves the dog, the owner has 14 days to notify the animal control authority in the new jurisdiction of the dog's relocation. If the owner presents proof of prior Sec. 822.043(c), H.S.C.

registration and pays a $25 fee, the new animal control authority must accept the new registration and issue a new tag to be worn on the dog's collar.

- g. An owner of a registered dangerous dog must notify the animal control authority of any attacks the dog makes on people. An unprovoked attack by a dangerous dog, outside the dog's enclosure, causing bodily injury is a Class C misdemeanor offense against the owner.
- h. An owner may face criminal liability if the owner knows the dog is a dangerous dog and the dog's unprovoked attack causes serious bodily injury to (3rd degree felony) or the death of (2nd degree felony) of a person.

□ 4. Non-compliance Hearing

- a. Any person may file an application with the court alleging that a dog is dangerous or that the owner of a dangerous dog has failed to comply with the requirements under Section 822.042(a), H.S.C.
- b. The court must set a hearing and give written notice of the time and place of the hearing to the owner of the dog, or the person from whom the dog was seized, and the person making the complaint.
- c. The hearing should be held not later than 10 days after the dog is seized or delivered.

Secs. 822.043(d) and 822.044, H.S.C. The court may order the dog be destroyed if the owner is convicted.

Sec. 822.005, H.S.C.

See TMCEC Forms Book:
Application: Dangerous Dog
Owner Failed to Comply.

Sec. 822.0423(a)-(b), H.S.C.
See TMCEC Forms Book:
Notice of Hearing: Owner Failed to Comply.

Sec. 822.0423(a), H.S.C.

There is a contradiction in the methodology for dangerous dog hearings set forth in Chapter 822. Specifically, Section 822.042(c) states that if, “after notice and hearing” to determine whether an owner of a dangerous dog has failed to comply with the requirements of Section 822.042(a), H.S.C., the court finds a failure to comply, it shall order the seizure of the dog. However, Section 822.0423(a) states that such a compliance hearing must be held not later than 10 days after the seizure. This apparent conflict can be resolved if the dog is seized pursuant to another seizure provision (e.g., a quarantine or dog-at-large ordinance). Otherwise, courts may set the hearing for not later than 10 days from the date the owner is notified.

- d. At the hearing, any interested party, including the city or county attorney, may present evidence.
- e. If the court finds a lack of compliance, it shall order the seizure of the dog and impound the animal in secure and humane conditions pending the owner's compliance. The owner has 10 days to comply with the requirements to own a dangerous dog. If the owner does not comply, on the 11th day after seizure, the court must order the humane destruction of the dog.
- f. If the court orders the seizure of the dog, but is unable to locate the owner, the court may order the humane destruction of the dog 15 days after the date of impoundment.
- g. The owner is liable for all fees or costs assessed for the seizure, acceptance, impoundment, or destruction of the dog.
- h. The owner or person filing the action may appeal the municipal court's determination in the manner as provided for the appeal of cases from the municipal court. However, there are no provisions for dealing with the dog during the pendency of the appeal.
- i. An owner who fails to comply with the requirements of Section 822.042(a) can also be charged with a Class C misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 17 ANIMALS

There are two avenues for protecting animals from cruel treatment under state law: criminal prosecution of the actor under the Penal Code, and the civil remedy to remove animals from the owners under Chapter 821 of the Health and Safety Code. These cases can be presented originally to a judge of a justice or municipal court or to a magistrate for a hearing in the justice or municipal court.
