● FACT or FICTION?

Question 1 Answer

- FICTION!

- Ryan has not committed an offense because Liam is exceptionally tall. If Liam were under 36 inches in height, he would have committed an offense. Likewise, if Liam were not wearing a safety belt, Ryan could have been cited for allowing Liam to ride unrestrained.

Transportation Code § 545.412

- (a) A person commits an offense if the person operates a passenger vehicle, transports a child who is younger than five and less than 36 inches in height, and does not keep the child secured during operation in a child passenger safety seat system according to the instructions of the manufacturer of the safety seat system.

Uncle Herman's car has 3 passenger seats (besides his driver's seat), and all 3 seats are equipped with child safety seats.

- Peanut, Harry, and Hector have all been secured in the safety seats. While there is no other seat for Howie, Herman was able to wedge him in between two of the child seats in backseat. Herman has committed an offense by allowing Howie to ride in the car without being secured in a safety seat or safety belt.

● FACT or FICTION?

Question 3 Answer
