

Bills v. State

The defendant committed a felony while on bail for a prior felony. The judge denied bail and the defendant appealed. The court applied a plain reading of Article I, Section 11a of the Texas Constitution in determining that the defendant could be denied bail if the order was entered within seven calendar days of incarceration. Deciding that the order was timely filed, the court affirmed the denial of bail.