

THE BRIEF

Information for Texas Municipalities about Texas Municipal Courts

The Brief is a periodic briefing for Texas mayors, city council members, and other local officials highlighting issues and increasing awareness and understanding of municipal courts in the Lone Star State.

The following issues may be accessed on the TMCEC website at <http://www.tmcec.com/c3/>

July 2019 - After the 86th Legislature: Some Laws Don't Wait for September 1st and are Already in Effect

April 2019 - Fines & Fees Exposition and Showcase

March 2019 - How Things Look from City Hall

January 2019 - The 86th Texas Legislature and Municipal Courts

November 2018 - The Official Launch of C3 (Councils, Courts, and Cities)

October 2018 - Recent Studies Provide Insights into Public Perception of Texas Courts

August 2018 - Where Loyalty Lies: City Hall and Municipal Court

June 2018 - Discharging the Judgment: Fines and Costs

April 2018 - What Does City Hall Have to Do with Court Security?

January 2018 - Judgment and Sentence: Fines and Costs

November 2017 - TML Annual Conference Recap: The Effects of Ferguson and the Future of Fines and Court Costs in Texas

September 2017 - Legislative Recap: Three Big Issues and the Road Ahead for Municipal Courts

Join Our Mailing List! Want to know about C3 related happenings and receive the most recent issue of The Brief in your in-box? Just send an email to tmcec@tmcec.com. In the subject line type "Add me to C3."

Follow us on Twitter: @C3ofTexas