OFFICER MILEAGE LOG (Art. 102.011(b), C.C.P.)

Article 102.011(b), Code of Criminal Procedure, provides:

...A defendant required to pay fees [as court costs for services of a peace officer] shall also pay 29 cents per mile for mileage required of an officer to perform a service listed in this subsection and to return from performing that service. If the service provided is the execution of a writ and the writ is directed to two or more persons or the officer executes more than one writ in a case, the defendant is required to pay only mileage actually and necessarily traveled. In calculating mileage, the officer must use the railroad or the most practical route by private conveyance. The defendant shall also pay all necessary and reasonable expenses for meals and lodging incurred by the officer in the performance of [these] services, to the extent such expenses meet the requirements of Section 611.001, Government Code.

This subsection applies to:

- (1) Conveying a prisoner after conviction to the county jail;
- (2) Conveying a prisoner arrested on a warrant or capias issued in another county to the court or jail of the county; and
- (3) Traveling to execute criminal process, to summon or attach a witness, and to execute process not otherwise described by Article 102.011.

Re: Response to Request for Public Access to Judicial Records

Dear _____,

I am in receipt of your request to inspect judicial records dated _____. This letter was received by the City of _____ Municipal Court on _____. It is my understanding that you are making a request for “judicial records” pursuant to Rule 12 of the Texas Rules of Judicial Administration. In your letter, you requested: _____

Your request seeks records that are not subject to Rule 12 and, by definition, are not “judicial records.” Rule 12 expressly states:

Judicial record means a record made or maintained by or for a court or judicial agency in its regular course of business but not pertaining to its adjudicative function, regardless of whether that function relates to a specific case. A record of any nature created, produced, or filed in connection with any matter that is or has been before a court is not a judicial record.

Pursuant to Rule 12.9, Texas Rules of Judicial Administration, you have the right to appeal my decision. If you wish to do so, please direct your timely appeal to:

Administrative Director
Office of Court Administration
P.O. Box 12066
Austin, TX 78701

Although it is my determination that the Public Access to Judicial Records (Rule 12) does not apply to the records you requested, you may have a right to inspect the records under the common law right of the public to inspect court records. However, there are some exceptions.

If you wish to make a request under the “common law” right, you may contact the Court to set a time for the inspection. The Clerk responsible for processing these requests is _____ (name) and can be contacted at _____ (address and telephone number).

Sincerely,

Judge, Municipal Court
